Center for Literacy Book Fair Featured Writer in Residence Vanita Oelschlager

The Center for Literacy's Writer in Residence, Vanita Oelschlager, held a book fair in November 2008. The community was invited to visit with her and have one of her many children's books autographed. Proceeds from several titles benefitted the Center for Literacy.

The net proceeds from the sale of Oelschlager's books benefit the Oak Clinic for Multiple Sclerosis and other charities. Two new books were published in spring 2009, "Ivy in Bloom" and "Birds of a Feather."
